[REDACTED]

allegations that Meade H. Esposito and others were engaged in activities involving the corrupt use of Esposito's vast influence over public officials, political party members and others, to extort money/business contacts.

Esposito had been actively involved in local politics for at least 27 years. He was responsible for the election of all the New York State Judges seated in Kings County, as well as all local, state and federal elected officials from that county. He also controlled hundreds of political patronage jobs given out after each election.

[REDACTED]

In September, 1987, [REDACTED] Esposito were convicted in U.S. District Court in the Eastern District of New York. While Esposito was convicted of offering a gratuity and violation of the Travel Act, his 12 year prison sentence was suspended. He was fined a total of $500,000 ordered to perform 500 hundred hours of community service and placed on 2 years probation.

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Attorney-in-charge, Organized Crime Strike Force, Eastern District of New York, personally prosecuted this case. During the initial stages of the investigation, [REDACTED] provided guidance and support by allocating all necessary manpower to address the many issues arising in the form of spin-off cases. He also assigned Special Attorney [REDACTED] to assist with the day-to-day legal matters pertaining to "Runnymede". Upon indictment of subjects Esposito [REDACTED] personally participated in all aspects of the prosecution. He spent countless hours familiarizing himself with the investigation in preparation for trial.

At the outset of the trial proceedings, [redacted] presented an opening statement which encapsulated this complex 18 month investigation so that the issues were clear and concise. [redacted] thereafter presented witnesses, cross-examined defendants and successfully argued motions. His closing statement was monumental in effect, leaving no question that the government's presentation reflected guilt beyond a reasonable doubt.

Special Attorney [redacted] Organized Crime Strike Force, Eastern District of New York, provided assistance in this investigation from its outset through conviction. [redacted] [redacted] This directly resulted in identification of related cases which were subsequently investigated as separate matters.

[redacted] During the trial of Esposito [redacted] assisted in direct and cross-examination of witnesses, successfully argued motions and effectively countered defense claims at various times during the trial of the legitimacy of their clients' actions.

It is requested that letters of commendation from the Director and certificates of appreciation be awarded to [redacted] for the outstanding work they performed in the investigation captioned "Runnymede".

Instructions

Subject Priorities for FBI Arrest or Locates:

- A - Subject wanted for crimes of violence (i.e. murder, manslaughter, forcible rape, robbery and aggravated assault) or convicted of such crimes in the past five years.
- B - Subjects wanted for crimes involving the loss or destruction of property valued in excess of $25,000 or convicted of such crimes in the past five years.
- C - All others

Claiming Non-Federal Arrests, Summonses, Recoveries or Convictions:

It is permissible to claim a local arrest, summons, recovery or conviction if the FBI significantly contributed to the accomplishment. A succinct narrative setting forth the basis for the claim must accompany this report. When claiming a local recovery, enter the word "LOCAL" to the right of the amount. Enter "LF" in the "In-Jail" block for all life sentences and "CP" for capital punishment sentences.

Reporting Convictions:

Convictions should not be reported until the sentence has been issued. There are two exceptions to this rule. The conviction information can be submitted by itself if:

1. The subject becomes a fugitive after conviction but prior to sentencing.
 2. The subject dies after conviction but prior to sentencing.
- An explanation is required in the Remarks section for either of the above exceptions.

Rule 20 Situations:

The field office that obtained the process (normally the office of origin) is the office that should claim the conviction, not the office where the subject enters the plea in cases involving Rule 20 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedures.

Investigative Assistance or Techniques (IA/Ts) Used:

- Since more than one IA/T could have contributed to the accomplishment, each IA/T used must be rated.
- The IA/T used must be rated each time an accomplishment is claimed. (For example - if informant information was the basis for a complaint, an arrest, a recovery and a conviction and if separate FD-515s are submitted for each of the aforementioned accomplishments, the "Informant Information" block must be rated on each FD-515 even if it was the same information that contributed to all the accomplishments.)

Subject: FBI :fbi investigators about two fort lauderdale vacations taken by b o UPI REGIONAL Wire (New York area)
Re: Id: IPM-197-870908-10164000

NEW YORK (UPI) — The bribery trial of Rep. Mario Biaggi and former Brooklyn Democratic boss Meade Esposito was delayed for 24 hours this weekend to give the congressman time to recover from the extraction of a wisdom tooth.

There was a lot of bleeding, your honor and the man is 69 years old, Biaggi's lawyer, Barry Slotnick, told Judge Jack Weinstein in U.S. District Court in Brooklyn.

Slotnick told the judge that Biaggi's dentist had ordered the congressman to go home and rest until 3 p.m.

Weinstein initially decided to start the second week of testimony at 10 a.m. but after talking with attorneys, announced the trial would resume at 10 a.m. Wednesday.

The trial centers around two Florida vacations Biaggi took with Barbara Barlow, a former model, and which were financed by Esposito.

On Friday, jurors in U.S. District Court in Brooklyn heard testimony from Barlow, who said the New York Congressman told her the trips were arranged by Esposito.

The prosecution has said it may call as many as 40 witnesses to testify, including city officials such as Mayor Edward Koch. Slotnick has listed the mayor as a possible defense witness.

Earlier in the week jurors heard wiretap recordings of conversations between the two that prosecutors have said show they conspired to obstruct justice by discussing what they would tell FBI investigators about two Fort Lauderdale vacations taken by Biaggi.

Esposito is charged with offering the congressman money as bribes for help in recovering money owed to his insurance firm by a sinking Brooklyn ship repair firm, Coastal Dry and Repair.

Biaggi is charged with accepting the bribe. Both face obstruction of justice charges.

Prosecutors have said a secretly taped conversation made Dec. 20, 1985, by the FBI minutes after Biaggi was questioned by federal investigators about the trips support the obstruction of justice charges.

During the conversation, Biaggi questioned Esposito about his willingness to pay for the vacations.

"This is not a gift," Esposito said in the tape. "It's uh, it's a uh, manifestation of my love for you."

Captioned matter has been investigated as a spin-off of the Runnymede investigation (NY 194B-526) since June 1986. Investigation has determined that [REDACTED] MEADE ESPOSITO, [REDACTED] and others as yet unknown have possibly violated criminal statutes. ESPOSITO's exposure notwithstanding, it is extremely unlikely that ESPOSITO will be prosecuted in this matter in view of his September 1987 conviction [REDACTED] and his indictment in a related matter.
